SELFISH OWNERS SHOW THEIR LACK OF APPRECIATION OF EFFORTS IN THEIR BEHALF.

Only Monfort and The Squire Start in the Stonybrook Stakes—Officials Fail to Discover Any Violations of Law.

New York, October 1.—It looked like an afternoon of match races at Aqueduct today. Both the Stonybrook Stakes and the steeplechase were two-horse affairs. The number of horses participating, twenty-eight, three less than yesterday, was quite the smallest seen around metropolitan race courses in a decade. Backers of favorites had another very profitable day, speculation being freely indulged in despite the presence at the track after afternoon of District Attorney Darrin and Sheriff Harvey. Mr. Darrin said that he would furnish Philip J. Dwyer with a daily list of alleged violators of the anti-betting law, accompanied by the usual ultimatum that they be barred from the track, unless they ceased operating. Mr. Dwyer replied to the district attorney's communications that he knew of no law breakers at Aqueduct and that it was up to the sheriff to arrest such whenever and wherever he found them.

Yesterday's renewal of the present anti-racing crusade had a deterrent effect on the big operators, men like James Beatty, Eddie Burke, Sol Lichtenstein, E. R. Bradley and Charles Cella temporarily laying aside all business cares and devoting themselves to the enjoyment of the sport purely. Many of the smaller ones still continued to lay odds privately during the afternoon without interruption. The sheriff's views on the situation meet with general approval. He says that while morally certain that betting is going on more or less on every race, neither he nor his eighteen alert deputies have discovered a single case of money being passed or of wagers received. That was the net result of four days of close and diligent observation on their part and has resulted in a complete failure to obtain sufficient evidence upon which to base an arrest.

Mr. Darrin, an inveterate race-goer for thirty-five years according to his own statement, wondered as he looked around the small and decorous crowd how racing could be continued under the present distressing conditions. "Personally," he continued, "I haven't seen anything like betting like this since I have been here. This looks to me more like a lot of orderly spectators watching a passing funeral than a racing concourse. The lists of names sent from the office to Mr. Dwyer, taken from the Lanyon Detective Agency and are turned over to the track officials for their consideration."

Captain Lanyon was at the track and unusually affable toward everybody. Yesterday's graft expose in the papers had not seemed to have had a depressing effect on the anti-racing crusaders. Monfort and The Squire were the only starters in the Stonybrook Stakes. The latter was backed heavily at 15 to 1, and closed the fraction of odds less than Monfort. In the running the Montpelier Stable's representative won out finally. Although the race was the fastest of the present meeting, neither of the two horses engaged was at its best.

The condensed history of the Stonybrook Stakes is as follows:

Year.	Winner.	A. Wt.	Jockey.	Val. Time.
1902	Last Knight	3	McIntyre	$1,000 1:49
1903	Namor	4	Fuller	1,035 1:50
1904	Go Between	95	Crimmins	1,175 1:50
1905	Sidney C. Loves	105	Schaffner	1,145 1:49
1906	Ormond	103	Notter	1,095 1:47
1907	Dolly Spangler	98	E. Dugan	1,070 1:48
1908	Monfort	106	Sweet	650 1:47

Jockeys Sweet and McCarthy divided the flat race honors between them. The latter has won half of the card on two occasions this week and is the real thing as a jockey just now. Gilbert did not ride, having gone to the Brookdale Farm to work out some horses for the Whitney stable. Trainer A. J. Jovner will be gone for a couple of days to superintend the shipment to Sheepshead Bay of those at the farm intended for the sales ring next Tuesday. Mr. Jovner said yesterday that he would not leave for England until after the election in order to give the forty odd stable employees a chance to vote against Hughes for governor.

Every race but the first furnished interesting struggles and exciting finishes. Ida D. galloped her opposition of five to a standstill early in the opening dash and was left to come home practically alone. There were many big wagers put on the market in support of the winner at post time, and her backers never had a moment's uneasiness after she had gone the first lap. The second race, a handicap, was won by Jummy Lane, added another steeplechase victory to his already long list of cross-country triumphs. He indulged Sandy Creeker, his solitary opponent, with the lead for over two miles before he was called upon for an effort, and then passed the leader and won comfortably.

Yankee Daughter scored at her second attempt in the colors of Archie Zimmer, her new owner. While owned by C. R. Ellison, the beautifully bred Mazzagan—Sallie of Savarre filly had been trying often to get out of the maiden class. Today's opposition was very moderate, which accounts for her success.

Probably the best struggle from a spectacular standpoint developed in the running of the fifth race, in which Fort Johnson earned a popular victory for the Sanfords. The finish was very close and was marked by more expressions of applause on the part of the public than all the other finishes combined. Dolly Spangler showed a glimpse of his old-time form when he led eight opponents throughout the closing race, at a mile and an eighth. The noted old Kingston gelding was not greatly fancied, although he closed the actual favorite. Much money was entrusted to Flavius, with Cullen aboard. It was a misguided plunge, Cullen riding so badly that he was greeted with derisive hoots at the finish.

A man who picked up a scarf pin which had been dropped on the lawn and who was afterwards pointed out to Seymour Butler by the affair caused a great commotion among the crowd.

There was no more paying off or settling at the race track.

Starter Mars Cassidy said today that the new Cuban race track project, in which he is a prime mover, is at a standstill.

Ida D. was bid up by a man named George Pease, butcher hailing from Freeport, Long Island, from $800 to $1,100. The owner bought her in for $5 additional.

All the season's good horses have gone into retirement.

W. H. Spence, whose occupation as trainer ceased with the sale of Besom, Ellisdale and St. Withold, expects to leave for San Francisco at an early date. It is Mr. Spence's intention to get a new string together for racing at Oakland.

THRIVING EXCELLENTLY AT HAMILTON.

Ethon Defeats King Cobalt and Has To Break a Track Record to Do It.

Hamilton, Ont., October 1.—The Hamilton Jockey Club officers and patrons an excellent card today. There were provided as features the Beaver Steeplechase over the two-mile course, the Royal Canadian Handicap and a race over the turf course. All three of these races furnished good contests; the steeplechase resulted in a driving finish between Steve Lane and Woodside in which the former was first home by a neck. In the Royal Canadian Handicap the field was made up of probably the best sprinters that ever went to the post at Hamilton. The race proved a stirring contest and the winner, Ethon, was forced to hang up a new track record to beat out King Cobalt. The latter showed a great flight of speed for a half mile and succumbed only after a grueling drive in which he displayed more courage than usual. Ethon showed a fine performance, coming from behind in the stretch run and finishing like a good race horse. The time for today's race was one-fifth of a second faster than the previous mark.

Favorites won two of the races, Solon Shingle and Throckmorton being the successful choices. A majority of the races furnished exciting contests, the finishes in three of them being of the driving order. The defeat of King Cobalt was the biggest upset of the afternoon. There was probably more money wagered on this horse than on any favorite that has started on the circuit this season.

The licenses of Jockeys G. H. Pierce, Liebert and Cummings were revoked by the officials of the Hamilton Jockey Club for abuse of the badge privileges. These three riders have been sending their badges out to the gate and passing them around to friends. They were caught in the act by the Pinkertons, who took the badges up and reported the matter to Secretary London. Pierce, who is racing a couple of jumpers here, was asked to remove his horses from the grounds.

Jockey Dave Nicol got in from Louisville this afternoon, but failed to arrive in time to fulfill the engagements that had been made for him today. Nicol will ride free lance for the remainder of the season, having severed his connection with the Cook stable. He will go to Latonia at the close of the present meeting.

The steeplechase, Arlan, was destroyed by trainer Tom Rodrock a few days ago. The horse injured himself in his last start and there was but slight chance of setting him to the post again. He was sent to the slaughterhouse.

M. B. Dooley, agent for R. F. Carman, purchased yesterday of J. W. Pangle the three-year-old, Crack Shot. The price paid was $300.

Harry Price, representative of the Maryland Jockey Club, arrived from Baltimore this morning. He notified horsemen not to ship to Pimlico until a few days before the meeting there begins, as the stalls at the track are filled just at present with trotters. Steeplechase Jockey Archibald, who had the mount on Mazzagan, struck one of the poles which mark the course with his knee, and came out of the race with an ugly looking gash on his leg.

THE CHAMPION RACERS RETIRED.

Announcement that Mr. Keene's Ballot, Colin and Celt Will Race No More This Year.

It has been given out authoritatively that the three great stars of the Keene stable, Ballot, Colin and Celt, will be raced no more this year, and may be considered as being already in retirement. Considering that their joint winnings this year foot up $128,300, and that each won every race for which he was started, it must be conceded that this illustrious trio is entitled to the rest and to everything that luxury could suggest as conducive to enjoyment of life by a horse. To be able to retire three undefeated cracks at the end of a racing campaign is something in the way of a novel record. And such horses. Every start each made was in a great stake race and every one was triumphantly added to the truly remarkable Keene stable account.

Of the three Ballot and Celt are sound horses. Celt is reported to have fully recovered from the injury to his foot that caused his retirement after winning the Brooklyn Handicap. Colin may have recovered also, but his case is subject to doubt that may be dispelled or confirmed when training is resumed next year. In the meantime it must be a great pleasure to possess the horses with such a record of unbroken victories as the following:

Stake, Track and Date.	Net value.
Withers Stakes, Belmont Park, May 23.....	$12,090

NEW ORLEANS RACING PLAN NOT COMPLETE.

New Orleans, La., October 1.—Announcement that about ninety days of racing probably will be held at New Orleans this year was made yesterday by S. F. Heaslip, president of the New Orleans Jockey Club, upon his return from Louisville.

While in Louisville he was in communication with the present owners of the major portion of the majority stock in the New Orleans track, and says he made arrangements with them to transfer their holdings to New Orleans men within the next thirty days.

Heaslip says he plans for ninety days racing under some system of betting which will not violate the Locke law prohibiting race track gambling. This law permits individual betting. The races this winter are to be conducted on the plan which first made racing popular here, that is with local ownership and operation of the tracks.

At Louisville, the folks who hold the stock say that Mr. Heaslip overstates his case and do not think that he can give them the necessary guarantees. Until these are forthcoming no control will be given Mr. Heaslip.

PIMLICO TRACK HAS BEEN IMPROVED.

Baltimore, Md., October 1.—Persons who have not visited Pimlico since last May will find many changes when the fall meeting opens October 24, or later. A new steeplechase course, new stables, new jockey board and timers' stand are some of the changes. And not the least of the improvements is the condition of the track itself. Many tons of sand have been spread on the track and worked in by superintendent Brennan, so that now the track can be worked in any sort of weather and the red clay has almost been lost sight of.

A new chute at the six furlongs pole has also been built, so that now fourteen or fifteen horses may be started at that point and will run for 100 or 150 yards straightaway with only a slight turn into the backstretch. This is a great improvement over the old six furlongs starting point, which was on a turn, and at which the rail horse was nearly always crowded out of his position, unless a very quick beginner.

WHITNEY STABLE TO BE BROKEN UP.

All but a Few of Its Horses To Be Sold Next Tuesday—Brookdale to Survive.

New York, October 1.—Preparatory to establishing himself as an English racing man, Harry Payne Whitney will sell the better part of his racing stable at public auction at Sheepshead Bay next Tuesday. Tuesday will be an off day in racing. The Westchester fall session will be inaugurated at Belmont Park on Monday after which there will be a lull until Wednesday.

When Mr. Whitney, who got back from his vacation in Europe last Saturday, notified William L.

Powers at the Fasig-Tipton Company that he wanted to sell next week Mr. Powers suggested Tuesday as the proper day and the paddocks of Sheepshead Bay the proper place. Few horsemen will be at Belmont Park on an off day but many stable in the neighborhood of Gravesend and Sheepshead and they can easily get to the Bay.

With the Whitney horses Herman B. Duray, who has established a stud in France, will have a clearing of racers. Mr. Duray will, it is said, offer practically everything in his establishment except Mediant and Running Water and a couple of other mares which are destined for stud service.

Ben Ban, a recent winner, will be offered in the Duray consignment.

Mr. Whitney has not decided what horses he will take to England, but it is probable that the two-year-olds, Bobbin, Perseus, Hillsdale and Sea Cliff, will be among the number. His other horses, with the exception of a few well-bred mares intended for Brookdale, are to go.

Jack Joyner is training many horses valuable to persons desiring to get winter stables together. Among the best are Burglar, Royal Tourist, County Fair, Xolox, Duke, Reunoke, Blackard, Belirum, Sandpiper, Westbury and Yorkville Beau. These are winners and besides them there will be some promising two-year-olds.

Next Tuesday will be the first big sale of Whitney horses since the late William C. Whitney took up the sport in 1890. Young Whitney will, it is said, continue to maintain Brookdale Farm, but his friends do not expect after this season to see his colors in this country for some years to come.

The young man has not taken anything like the interest in the sport his father manifested. He is in Europe most of the year. During the present crisis in racing affairs he has been abroad. He did not attend the Saratoga midsummer meeting, although he is heavily interested in the enterprise at the Springs and is vice-president of the Saratoga Association.

In connection with the sale news, the future engagements in England and France—other than the Oaks and Oaks of American-bred youngsters, in the Whitney and Belmont establishment are given below:

RACE HORSES BRING GOOD PRICES.

New York, October 1.—A large crowd of intending buyers attended today's sale of horses in training at the Aqueduct track. The Emery lot, consisting of Master Robert, Arasee, Erbet and others, were withdrawn, with a loss of interest in the sale.

IMPROVING AT LOUISVILLE.

PLEASANT WEATHER LEADS TO INCREASED ATTENDANCE AT DOUGLAS PARK.

Zienap Springs a Surprise in Defeating Berwick—Sorrowful Takes a Purse—Topsy Robinson in Front.

Louisville, Ky., October 1.—The Douglas Park track management was given a good deal of encouragement this afternoon by the improved attendance. Weather conditions were again disagreeable, a piercing wind making it decidedly uncomfortable for the grandstand occupants, but big fields went to the post in most of the races, and the sport was excellent. Favorites were successful in the majority. The biggest upset came in the feature race, the Cherokee Handicap at six furlongs, when Berwick, the topweight, was taken into camp by Zienap, one of the outsiders. Berwick made a game effort and raced his early opposition into defeat, but under his heavy impost began flinching in the last furlong, enabling Zienap, which had been a trailer in the early racing, to wear him down by a magnificent rush and win going away. Berwick easily taking second place in advance of Pleas.

Farmey Schreiber managed to take down a purse, the first one in a long time, when his Sorrowful, the heavy favorite, beat a band of twelve other maiden youngsters in the opening dash. Jockey Fowers, who had the mount on Sorrowful, was also successful in landing Financier a winner in the second race. Financier was also a heavily supported first choice. Most of the money that the backers of Financier had won by his victory went back on the same stable's representative, Sorrowful, and race and his failure to even get a place was one of the afternoon's disappointments. Ben Double was luckiest in the race and lasted just long enough to save the purse from the fast coming Bonebrake.

Topsy Robinson outclassed her opponents in the fifth race and came away when her rider called on her. Beth Goodwin annexing second place in front of Gold Treasure. Earl's Court, in this race, caused some excitement by getting the better of Jockey Fowers, who had the mount on Sorrowful, and ran away a mile and a half before he could be brought under control. The closing race was only a canter for Lady Esther, which won all the way by a wide margin, Hans outstaying the others for second place.

S. F. Heaslip's announcement, made on his arrival in New Orleans and which reached here this morning, that there would be ninety days' racing in the Crescent City this winter, was hailed with delight by the horsemen in this section. It now appears as if Heaslip will be successful in his effort to lease the plants on behalf of a holding company. In connection with the New Orleans racing it is said that M. J. Winn will be tendered the management.

Fred Cook has announced his intention to get rid of about forty broodmares that he has on his farm in Illinois. He will ship them to St. Louis and dispose of them within a few days. Cook will only campaign a small stable this winter on the California tracks. Bessie Spahr will be sent to Kentucky to be bred to Pink Coat.

The majority of the greater prizes of the turf fall to two-year-olds and three-year-olds. The opportunities of older horses are limited in comparison. Three years old, however, are the great four-year-olds, or older, might sweep the majority of big handicaps, weight-for-age stakes, and such exceptional events as the Century and Annual Champion, and thereby amass a sum in excess of any won by a younger competitor. But such a horse has not arrived. The racing of the last seven years affords the following illustration, the examples showing the greatest money earners of each year:

PERSONAL LIBERTY LEAGUE WORK.

New York, October 1.—The Personal Liberty League has about completed arrangements for its extensive campaign throughout the state. Mass meetings will be held in many cities. Prominent speakers will be heard in all the cities of the state, and representatives of the league will effect permanent organizations in each city.

Colonel Franklin Bartlett, president of the league, is expected from Europe this week, and following his arrival there will be an important conference at league headquarters, 229 Broadway, New York City, at which will be gathered the representatives of branch leagues at Buffalo, Utica, Saratoga, Albany and other points throughout the state. At this conference the final details of the campaign will be completed and perfected.

Following the state campaign the league proposes to wind up with a great mass meeting in New York City and another in Brooklyn, with perhaps a great parade which will be given in the city of New York in order that the strength of the liberal element among the citizens may be demonstrated. It is the aim of the league to make this parade the greatest demonstration of a non-political character ever seen in this city.

At the conference following Colonel Bartlett's return will also be decided the league's policy regarding the endorsement of candidates known to be favorable to the cause of personal liberty. While the league will endorse liberal candidates, it will also work for the defeat of such candidates as are known to be narrow and intolerant in their views.

The league will take no part in the national campaign. The league declines to advise the endorsement of either candidate on national tickets and will leave members to vote as they please in this respect.

Many appeals have come to the league from New Jersey for the establishment of a league in that state. This matter is impossible at this time, but as soon as the campaign in this state is completed New Jersey will be completely organized and placed in sound standing. Several thousand applications for membership from all parts of New Jersey are already filed with league headquarters. It will be the aim of the league to perfect the New Jersey organization so that it may enter the national organization to be effected this winter.

WHY GATES BETS AGAINST GOV. HUGHES.

New York, October 1.—John Gates and his agents are betting on the defeat of Governor Hughes wherever they can. Mr. Gates said yesterday that he is confident Governor Hughes will not be re-elected and he is willing to stake some money on the result of the election.

"New York is too big for Hughes," said Mr. Gates. "This state takes the character of a man like that quick and gets all it wants of him in a hurry. New York is a state of liberal-minded people and they do not care to have a man in office who will seek to tie them down to his narrow ideas of what is the right thing. That is why I'm against Hughes, and I find enough sentiment all over the state to make it worth my while risking some money on my opinion."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

$5 mutuels paid. Ben Double, $16.95 straight, $12.10 place, $11.25 show; Bonebrake, $64.30 place, $28.00 show; Milliadies, $17.05 show.

*Auction field. Time, 2:48, 5:0, 1:15.

Winner—B. g. by Bendoran—Lemons (trained by W. E. Bellew).
Went to post at 3:23. At post 2 minutes. Start bad. Won driving; second and third the same. Ben Double, showing the most speed, took a long lead at once, but was tiring in the last furlong and barely lasted long enough to outstay Bonebrake. The latter, away poorly, had a rough trip and, closing a big gap, was going fast at the end and would have won in a few more strides. Milliadies ran a good race and was prominent all the way. Robin Hood tired fast after going a fairly good half. St. Valentine closed a gap and ran a good race. Lizzie McLean held on well for a half before tiring. Hannah Bey got away poorly and had scant chance, but ran far below his best form. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.
Scratched—67645 Chief Milhink, 122.

77380 FOURTH RACE—3/4 Mile. (74758—1:12½—3—92.) Purse $600. 3-year-olds and upward. Handicap. Net value to winner $450.

*Auction field. Time, 2:48, 5:0, 1:14.

Winner—B. m. by Florist—Alleviate (trained by R. P. Brooks).
Went to post at 3:37. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won easily; second and third driving. Zienap was kept in the rear until straightened out for the stretch drive, where she moved up with a rush and, wearing down Berwick, won easily. Berwick was made much use of in setting the pace for the first half and raced Haensel and Please into defeat, but tired slightly in the last sixteenth. Please ran well and, standing a final drive gamely, outstayed Haensel. The latter ran a good race and saved much ground throughout. Lady Martha made a good challenge after going a half, but quit in the stretch.

Overweights—Zienap, 1 pound.

Winner—Br. m. by Sempronius—Spider (trained by H. Oots).
Went to post at 4:27. At post 3 minutes. Start bad. Won easily; second and third driving. Topsy Robinson moved up gradually, wearing the leaders down in the stretch, won going away. Beth Goodwin, showing sudden improvement, forced a fast pace and took the lead in the stretch, but tired in the final drive. Gold Treasure ran a good race and came from a long way back in the last quarter. Lady Hapsburg showed the most speed for a half, but tired fast in the stretch. Lady Ermy ran fairly well. Racontur showed speed, but quit badly in the last quarter. Earl's Court ran away a mile and a half before the start and was pulled up in the race. The winner was entered for $400; no bid.
